

Email player availability notice

This screen allows clubs to send automatic messages to players who have been selected in upcoming matches and ask them to indicate their availability. On receipt of the email, the player must click on the given unique hyperlink that will display a web page where they can nominate their availability. At any time, a club administrator can view which players have replied with their availability and whether they are available or not for upcoming matches.

From	<input type="text" value="27/04/2016"/>		To	<input type="text" value="27/05/2016"/>		<input type="button" value="GO"/>
------	---	--	----	---	--	-----------------------------------

This will generate an automatic email to the selected current players which requests their availability for upcoming matches.
Extra text can be entered in the body field below, this will be appended to the email.
The email should be sent once in the week leading up to the matches.
Players can also set their availability for all dates in a given season at any time by logging in to SportzVault.

Select the matches below to include in the email.

Upcoming matches:

- ☒ BCR:Scotney Cup - Beenleigh RFC v Everton Park RFC (14 May 3:00PM)

The upcoming matches for each grade in the club that commence within the selected date range will display. By default, the date range is set for 7 days from the current date, although this can be changed by changing the Date From and/or Date To selections. The Date From cannot be earlier than the current date, and the Date To date range cannot be more than 2 months from the current date.

Select the matches to include in the email. Players will then be able to nominate availability for each match.
